

Field Engineer

This position can be based in Tulsa OK or Seattle WA. The ideal candidate will be able to travel extensively, have good practical and technical skills, be a good communicator and enjoy working with others in a process plant environment.

Responsibilities

Supervise and assist the installation of ClearSign technology on customers site.

Provide installation checks, start up assistance, maintenance and operator training on customer sites or partner premises.

Provide test engineer activities to aid product development and test facility improvement at the ClearSign test center in Seattle

Support company business development and sales activities including conference representation and presentations at customer locations.

Qualifications

A good relevant engineering degree (mechanical, chemical, petrochemical or similar) or equivalent experience.

5 years experience, at least 3 in a process plant or fired equipment related business.

Experience working autonomously on customer sites

Ability to travel 75% of the time, including internationally

Well organized, highly motivated with good communication skills

Authorized to work in the USA

Qualified applicants should submit, resume/CV and cover letter to careers@clearsign.com.

